A Quest to Find the Heroes!

How many heroes can you find in this issue of Preview magazine?

Count how many times you see heroes to win some great prizes during the TD Summer Reading Club. (Hint: Heroes come in all shapes and sizes and some are harder to find than others!)

Submit your answer at www.BiblioOttawaLibrary.ca.

Two lucky winners will be drawn on Tuesday, Aug. 1 from all the correct answers. The contest is open to children and teens except immediate family members of OPL employees. Only one entry per person. Deadline to participate is Friday, July 28. Good luck!

Héros recherchés!

Combien de héros peux-tu trouver dans ce numéro de En Primeur?

Compte combien de fois tu vois des héros pour gagner de merveilleux prix dans le cadre du Club de lecture d'été TD. (Indice : Les héros viennent sous toutes formes et tailles; certains sont plus difficiles à trouver que d'autres!)

Soumets ta réponse à www.BiblioOttawaLibrary.ca.

Le nom de deux chanceux sera tiré au sort le mardi 1^{er} août parmi toutes les bonnes réponses. Le concours est ouvert aux enfants et adolescents à l'exception des membres de la famille immédiate des employés de la BPO. Une seule participation par personne. La date limite pour participer est le vendredi 28 juillet. Bonne chance!

Preview is produced quarterly by the Community Partnerships and Programming staff of the Ottawa Public Library and is available in all library branches and bookmobiles.

En primeur, une publication trimestrielle produite par le Service des partenariats communautaires et programmation de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa, est disponible dans toutes les succursales et au bibliobus.

Board Highlights

Trustee Karyn Standen was elected as Vice Chair, by acclamation, at the January Board meeting.

City Councillor Peggy Feltmate was appointed to fill a vacancy on the New Central Library Building Committee at the February Board meeting.

In March, an interim policy on branch naming was approved, to proceed with public participation in choosing a name for the soon-to-be completed South Central District Library (SCDL). A Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the OPL and the Friends of the Ottawa Public Library Association (FOPLA), formalizing the relationship between these two symbiotic organizations, was also approved.

A special meeting was held on April 3 to approve the purchase of a large furniture order for the South Central District Library. Trustee Steve Desroches' resignation from the Board was announced following his decision to run for City Council. At a special meeting in April, the Board approved a consultation framework on the strategic goals (approved in January), and appointed Jan Harder to the Board's Governance Committee to fill a vacancy.

Visit www.BiblioOttawaLibrary.ca for additional details.

Faits saillants du Conseil

À l'occasion de la réunion du Conseil en janvier, l'administratrice Karyn Standen a été élue vice-présidente par acclamation.

La conseillère municipale Peggy Feltmate a comblé un poste laissé vacant au sein du comité de la construction de la nouvelle Bibliothèque centrale à la réunion de février du Conseil.

En mars, une politique provisoire a été approuvée pour la participation du public au choix du nom de la Bibliothèque du secteur Centre-Sud (BSCS) qui sera bientôt achevée. Un protocole d'entente entre la BPO et l'Association des amis de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa (AABPO), pour officialiser la relation entre ces deux organisations symbiotiques, a aussi été adopté.

Le 3 avril, le Conseil s'est réuni en séance extraordinaire pour approuver une importante commande de mobilier destiné à la Bibliothèque du secteur Centre-Sud. La démission de l'administrateur Steve Desroches a été annoncée suite à sa décision de se présenter comme conseiller municipal. Lors d'une séance extraordinaire en avril, le Conseil a approuvé un cadre de consultation sur les objectifs stratégiques (approuvés en janvier) et nommé Jan Harder au comité de la gouvernance du Conseil pour combler un poste vacant.

The Library of the Future

Even BOPL, the library dragon, chipped in as OPL staff and FOPLA volunteers stocked shelves with material in time for the June 7 opening of the new South Central District Library. The Friends Bookstore "By the Book", located at the South Central District Library, will be their seventh used book retail operation.

La Bibliothèque de l'avenir

Même BOPL, le dragon de la Bibliothèque, a aidé le personnel de la BPO et les bénévoles de l'AABPO qui s'affairaient à placer le matériel sur les étagères en vue de l'ouverture de la nouvelle Bibliothèque du secteur Centre-Sud le 7 juin. Les Amis, géreront « À vos livres », leur septième librairie de livres usagés, située à la Bibliothèque du secteur Centre-Sud.

Celebrating Friends...

As our part in the OPL's 100th Anniversary celebrations, The Friends of the Ottawa Public Library Association (FOPLA) presented two contests: Ottawa's 100 Favourite Books, and the Why I Love My Library contest.

To celebrate our own 25th anniversary, and as a thank-you to our many devoted volunteers who keep our bookshops operating, we are arranged a one-day excursion to Montreal on June 8 to visit La Grande Bibliothèque.

At the time of writing, early returns from Ottawa's 100 Favourite Books contest had "Anne of Green Gables" with a narrow lead over "Pride and Prejudice" but many nominations and votes were still pouring in. The contest was launched on the OPL anniversary date (April 30), and ran for two weeks. Library Board Chair Rick Chiarelli, myself, (Friends' President, Andy Billingsley) and distinguished guests helped launch the online contest, and shared a few favourite books of their own. The selections included Green Eggs and Ham by Dr. Seuss, and books by local authors, Sandra Gwyn and Charles Gordon. Contest participants were eligible for a draw for a Blue Man Group prize package in Toronto. (See page 9 for more information and the list of Ottawa's 100 Favourite Books.)

On May 25, the Friend's Past President, Bill Porter, helped launch the second contest, which will run through the summer until Sept. 15. The Why I Love My Library contest celebrates and highlights the impact of Ottawa public libraries on individuals and on the community. Entrants will share their personal stories on how libraries in Ottawa have made a difference in their life and in the lives of others. There are three categories: written, audio, and multimedia, and three age groups for each, children, teens and adults. The Friends will also take part in the judging.

La Grande Bibliothèque in Montreal opened on April 30 last year, and provides an example of what a 21st century Canadian metropolitan library can be. It houses the main Montreal lending and reference collection under the same roof as the Quebec provincial collection. The construction cost alone was $97.6 million for a 350,000 sq. ft. building. A 90-minute tour will be the highlight of the Friends' visit. A second trip in the fall is being considered in response to the intense interest.

Yet another celebration is being planned for the June 20 official opening of the Friends' seventh used book retail operation. With the catchy name, "By the Book", this kiosk is located next to the new South Central District Library (SCDL) in South Keys/Greenboro. An enthusiastic team of at least thirty volunteers has been organized by Lori Nash, a member of the Friends' Board, to operate the kiosk, and an adjoining coffee shop, our first ever! The opening will coincide with that of the Branch, to which the Friends have contributed $30,000 to expand the children's collection.

The final celebration, to honour the winner of the "Friends of the Year" competition, will be held in Ottawa during the Canadian Library Association (CLA) conference from June 14-17. It is being organized by the Friends of Canadian Libraries, an association which links the many Friends groups across Canada, with support from the Ottawa Friends.

Mammoth Sale

The enormously popular, annual Mammoth Used Book Sale, held by the Friends of the Ottawa Public Library Association (FOPLA) on April 22 and 23 at the Nepean Sportsplex, raised over $13,000 for the OPL.

Solde gigantesque

Le très populaire Solde gigantesque annuel de livres usagés, organisé par l'Association des amis de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa (AABPO) les 22 et 23 avril au Nepean Sportsplex, a permis de recueillir plus de 13 000 $ au profit de la BPO.

Les Amis en fête...

Dans le cadre des célébrations du 100^e anniversaire de la BPO, l'Association des amis de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa (AABPO) a organisé le concours Les 100 livres préférés d'Ottawa et le concours Pourquoi j'aime ma bibliothèque. Le 8 juin, afin de souligner notre propre 25^e anniversaire et remercier les nombreux bénévoles dévoués qui s'occupent de nos librairies, nous avons organisé une excursion d'une journée à Montréal pour visiter la nouvelle Grande bibliothèque.

Au moment de mettre sous presse, les premiers votes reçus dans le cadre du concours Les 100 livres préférés d'Ottawa placent Anne of Green Gables en tête, talonné par Pride and Prejudice, mais les propositions et les votes continuent d'affluer. Le concours qui s'étendait sur deux semaines a été lancé le 30 avril, jour de l'anniversaire de la BPO. Le président du Conseil d'administration de la Bibliothèque, Rick Chiarelli, des invités de marque et moi-même (Andy Billingsley, président des Amis) avons participé au lancement du concours en ligne et partagé le titre de quelques-uns de nos livres préférés, par exemple Green Eggs and Ham du Dr Seuss, et certains autres de Sandra Gwyn et Charles Gordon, auteurs locaux. Les participants au concours étaient admissibles au tirage d'un lot de prix pour assister à un spectacle du Blue Man Group à Toronto. (Voir page 9 pour plus d'information et la liste complète des 100 livres préférés d'Ottawa.)

Le 25 mai, Bill Porter, président sortant des Amis, a participé au lancement du deuxième concours qui se déroulera tout l'été jusqu'au 15 sept. Le concours Pourquoi j'aime ma bibliothèque célèbre et souligne l'impact des bibliothèques publiques d'Ottawa sur les personnes et la communauté. Les participants décriront comment la bibliothèque a fait une différence dans leur vie et celle des autres. Les trois catégories du concours - version écrite, audio et multimédia - s'adressent à trois groupes d'âge, soit les enfants, les adolescents et les adultes. Les Amis participeront aussi au processus de sélection.

La Grande Bibliothèque, un exemple d'une bibliothèque métropolitaine du 21^e siècle au Canada, a ouvert ses portes en avril 2005. Elle abrite sous un même toit la plus importante collection pour emprunt et de référence à Montréal ainsi que les archives du Québec. Rien que les coûts de construction se sont élevés à 97,6 millions de dollars pour un bâtiment de 350 000 pieds carrés. Une visite guidée de 90 minutes sera le clou de l'excursion des Amis, laquelle suscite un tel intérêt qu'un deuxième départ est envisagé pour l'automne.

Une autre fête s'organise pour l'ouverture officielle de la septième librairie de livres usagés dirigée par les Amis. Le comptoir de livres usagés au nom accrocheur « À vos livres » est situé à côté de la nouvelle Bibliothèque du secteur Centre-Sud (BSCS) dans South Keys/Greenboro. Une équipe enthousiaste d'au moins trente bénévoles a été formée par Lori Nash, membre du conseil des Amis, pour diriger le comptoir et notre tout premier casse-croûte aménagé à proximité! L'ouverture coïncidera avec celle de la succursale. Les Amis ont contribué 30 000 $ pour enrichir la collection destinée aux enfants dans cette succursale.

La dernière célébration, pour honorer le lauréat du concours les « Amis de l'année », aura lieu à l'occasion de la conférence de la Canadian Library Association (CLA) qui se tiendra à Ottawa du 14 au 17 juin. L'événement est organisé par les Friends of Canadian Libraries qui relient les nombreux groupes d'amis partout au Canada, avec le soutien des Amis d'Ottawa.

It's not what we take out of our libraries that matters . . .
 it's what we put in

Perhaps more than any other public institution or service, libraries define us as individuals and as members of a community. The best libraries entertain us, answer our questions, instill knowledge, provide guidance and give meaning.

The new South Central District Library (SCDL) is such a library. When it opened its doors on June 7, this "library of the future" elevated the entire Ottawa Public Library system to a new level of excellence. It is an inspiration to not only those who use it, but libraries and library users throughout the country.

Yet, Library staff believe it is capable of even more. With your support, additional services and resources, particularly for teens and young children, could be added. That's why the newly formed Ottawa Public Library Foundation is seeking the financial assistance of those who will benefit the most from the South Central District Library, members of the immediate community and OPL users in general. We're asking you to put something back into the library system that has served you so well over the years.

Located at 363 Lorry Greenberg Drive, the SCDL was funded primarily by the City of Ottawa. Generous financial assistance was also provided by The Friends of the Ottawa Public Library, corporate sponsors and individual donors. However, we do need additional support to enhance the library's children and teen sections.

Additional items will create a more dynamic, fun learning environment for children and families. Adding early learning equipment to the children's area would help create a community destination and environment that supports children and their families and makes them eager to spend hours, not minutes, learning, playing and reading at the library.

Additional equipment in the teen room will help make the library an even more relevant place for teens and young people. The room elements were designed with input from focus sessions with area teens. This room is a place for and by teens with focus on technology and teen artwork and collections.

The Ottawa Public Library Foundation, created to maximize the generosity of library supporters throughout the Ottawa system, is seeking your help to purchase the following enhancements:

Early Years Literacy Centre for the Children

- Puzzle walls play structure $13,000
- Gross motor skills building blocks $5,200
- Grandfather clock $2,500
- Fine motor skills manipulative pieces $1,000

Centre for the Teens

- Large screen monitor $3,000
- DVD player and console $500

On behalf of the New South Central District Library, the Ottawa Public Library Foundation and the countless users who will benefit from your generosity, thank you for your support. Please contact us if you'd like to contribute to any of these special enhancements.

The Ottawa Public Library Foundation's 1st annual Read-A-thon raised over $8,000. On Saturday, April 29 more than 50 children, family members, authors, celebrity readers and even a few dogs took turns reading and listening during the 10-hour event. When the last book was closed, 100 stories had been read to help kick off the Ottawa Public Library's centennial celebrations. Funds raised will support children services at the OPL.

The day was full of fun activities including readings by celebrated Canadian authors Karleen Bradford, Rachna Gilmore and Lise-Anne Pilon-Delorme, crafts, prizes, a visit by R.E.A.D. (Reading Education Assistance Dogs) and lots of enthusiasm from BOPL, the OPL's Fire-Reading Dragon mascot.

The event was sponsored by TD Canada Trust and supported by Canadian Tire - Heron Rd store, Giant Tiger and Topper's Pizza.

Families read together / Les familles lisent ensemble

Ce n'est pas ce que nous empruntons de nos bibliothèques qui compte, mais plutôt ce que nous y ajoutons...

Sans doute plus que tout service public ou autre institution, les bibliothèques nous définissent comme individus et membres d'une collectivité. Les meilleures bibliothèques nous divertissent, répondent à nos questions, inculquent le savoir, orientent et donnent un sens aux choses.

La nouvelle Bibliothèque du secteur Centre-Sud (BSCS) en est une de cette trempe. À sa mise en service le 7 juin, cette « bibliothèque de l'avenir » a propulsé le réseau de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa à un nouveau sommet d'excellence. Elle est une inspiration non seulement pour sa clientèle, mais pour les bibliothèques et leurs usagers partout au pays.

Cependant, le personnel de la Bibliothèque se dit capable d'en faire encore plus. Grâce à votre soutien, des services et des ressources supplémentaires pourraient être ajoutés, surtout à l'intention des ados et des jeunes enfants. Voilà pourquoi la Fondation de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa, nouvellement créée, cherche à obtenir l'aide financière des personnes qui profiteront le plus de la Bibliothèque du secteur Centre-Sud, soit les membres de la collectivité immédiate et les usagers de la BPO en général. Nous vous demandons de renvoyer l'ascenseur au réseau de bibliothèques qui vous a si bien desservi au fil des ans.

La BSCS, située au 363, promenade Lorry Greenberg, a été principalement financée par la Ville d'Ottawa. L'Association des Amis de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa, des entreprises et des donateurs individuels ont aussi apporté une généreuse contribution financière. Toutefois, nous avons besoin de soutien additionnel pour améliorer les sections de la bibliothèque consacrées aux enfants et aux ados.

L'ajout d'articles créera un environnement plus dynamique et amusant pour les enfants et les familles. Dans l'aire des enfants, l'installation d'équipement additionnel axé sur l'apprentissage contribuera à créer une destination communautaire et un environnement convivial pour les enfants et leurs familles, ce qui les incitera à se rendre à la bibliothèque passer des heures plutôt que des minutes à apprendre, jouer et lire.

De l'équipement supplémentaire dans la salle des ados rendra la bibliothèque encore plus utile pour les adolescents et les jeunes gens. Des groupes de discussion formés d'ados du secteur ont donné leur éclairage sur l'aménagement de la pièce. La salle est donc conçue pour et par les ados, avec un accent sur la technologie ainsi que sur leurs travaux et collections.

Créée pour maximiser la générosité des passionnés de l'ensemble du réseau de bibliothèques, la Fondation de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa sollicite votre aide pour acquérir les matériels suivants en vue d'améliorer les services offerts :

Centre d'alphabétisation de la petite enfance

- Éléments de jeux en casse-tête mural 13 000 $
- Jeux de blocs (mouvements globaux) 5 200 $
- Horloge grand-père 2 500 $
- Pièces à manipuler (motricité fine) 1 000 $

Centre des ados

- Moniteur à grand écran 3 000 $
- Lecteur de DVD et pupitre 500 $

Au nom de la nouvelle Bibliothèque du secteur Centre-Sud, la Fondation de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa et les innombrables usagers qui profiteront de votre générosité vous remercie d'avance pour votre soutien.

Veuillez communiquer avec nous si vous voulez contribuer à l'une des améliorations susmentionnées.

Rita Celli from CBC reads a story / Rita Celli de CBC lit une histoire

La première édition annuelle du Lire-a-thon de la Fondation de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa a permis de recueillir plus de 8 000 $ au profit des services aux enfants de la BPO. Le samedi 29 avril, plus de 50 enfants, membres de la famille, auteurs et lecteurs bien connus, et même quelques chiens, ont lu et écouté des histoires pendant l'activité qui a duré 10 heures. Quand on a fermé le dernier livre, 100 histoires avaient été lues pour lancer les célébrations du centenaire de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa.

La journée a été remplie d'activités amusantes, y compris des lectures par Karleen Bradford, Rachna Gilmore et Lise-Anne Pilon-Delorme, auteures canadiennes bien connues, du bricolage, des prix, une visite par Reading Education Assistance Dogs (R.E.A.D) et de BOPL, le dragon-lecteur tout feu tout flamme de la BPO, débordant d'enthousiasme.

L'événement a été parrainé par le Groupe financier TD et appuyé par le magasin Canadian Tire du chemin Heron, Giant Tiger et Topper's Pizza.

The 10th Annual Diefenbooker Classic

This annual community event in West Carleton has once again been a resounding success, despite the poor weather conditions. A total of 414 registrants came together in Carp on Saturday, May 6, and raised a grand total of $14,768 towards the local branches of the Ottawa Public Library as well as the Carp Splash Pad. This event has now raised a total of over $100,000 in its 10-year life.

Many thanks to our title sponsor, the West Carleton Medical-Dental Centre and West Carleton Physiotherapy and Sports Injury Clinic, who have returned every year to lead the charge. Also many thanks to our major sponsors, including Sports4 / New Balance, Nelson Water Systems and Waste Management, all of whom support us year after year. A complete list of our many other sponsors will be shown on the Diefenbooker website.

The success of the Diefenbooker Classic is brought about by the willing participants and dedicated volunteers who have returned for many years to help. Many thanks to you, and to the OPL staff who continue to support the event!

Dixième édition annuelle de la Classique Diefenbooker Cette activité communautaire annuelle de West Carleton a une fois de plus connu un succès éclatant malgré les mauvaises conditions atmosphériques. Au total, 414 inscrits assemblés à Carp, le samedi 6 mai, ont collecté 14 768 $ au profit des succursales locales de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa et du Carp Splash Pad. Au cours de ses 10 années d'existence, cette activité a permis de recueillir plus de 100 000 $.

Nous remercions vivement nos principaux commanditaires, le West Carleton Medical-Dental Centre et le West Carleton Physiotherapy and Sports Injury Clinic qui nous sont revenus tous les ans. Nous remercions aussi nos importants commanditaires dont Sports4/New Balance, Nelson Water Systems and Waste Management qui nous soutiennent année après année. La liste complète de l'ensemble de nos nombreux autres commanditaires sera affichée sur le site web de Diefenbooker.

Le succès de la Classique Diefenbooker est le fruit de la volonté des participants et de bénévoles dévoués qui apportent leurs contributions tous les ans. Merci à toutes les personnes et au personnel de la BPO qui apportent leur soutien continu à cette activité!

Ottawa's 100 Favourite Books

A lively group of writers and readers helped launch the Ottawa's 100 Favourite Books Contest on April 28 at the Nepean Centrepointe branch as part of the OPL's 100th anniversary celebrations. Library Board Chair Rick Chiarelli, Friends of the Ottawa Public Library President Andrew Billingsley and local authors Charlotte Gray, Michèle Matteau and Phil Jenkins were all on hand to share their favourite books. The OPL showcased the library's new website and promotional items and guests were treated to an original OPL anniversary song by Phil Jenkins before enjoying cake and refreshments.

Based on nominations and voting on the new and improved OPL website during the first two weeks of May, the following is a list of Ottawa's 100 favourite books according to OPL cardholders.

Engracia Delorme and Helen Ziobrowski were the lucky winners of a trip to Toronto. Cassandra Boville, Robert Dion, Grace Johnston and Catherine Shepherd won book packages from Simon & Schuster. Participants names were drawn randomly to win prizes.

Les 100 livres préférés d'Ottawa

Un groupe d'écrivains et de lecteurs pleins d'entrain ont contribué au lancement du concours Les 100 livres préférés d'Ottawa, organisé dans le cadre des célébrations du centenaire de la BPO, le 28 avril à la succursale Nepean Centrepointe. Rick Chiarelli et Andrew Billingsley, respectivement président du Conseil d'administration de la Bibliothèque et président des Amis de la BPO, ainsi que les auteurs Charlotte Gray, Michèle Matteau et Phil Jenkins étaient présents pour partager leurs livres préférés. La BPO a présenté son nouveau site web et des articles promotionnels. En outre, les invités ont eu l'occasion d'entendre une chanson originale sur l'anniversaire de la BPO, écrite et interprétée par Phil Jenkins, avant de savourer du gâteau et des rafraîchissements.

Compte tenu des propositions de livres et des votes sur le nouveau site web amélioré de la BPO effectués pendant les deux premières semaines de mai, voici la liste des 100 livres préférés d'Ottawa selon les abonnés de la BPO.

Engracia Delorme et Helen Ziobrowski sont les heureuses gagnantes d'un voyage à Toronto pour voir Blue Man Group. Cassandra Boville, Robert Dion, Grace Johnston et Catherine Shepherd ont gagné des lots de livres offerts par Simon & Schuster. Le nom des gagnants a été tiré au hasard parmi ceux des participants.

Multicultural Liaison Officer (MLO) Program at OPL

This summer a partnership between the Ottawa Public Library (OPL) and Ottawa Community Immigrant Services Organization (OCISO) will enable new immigrants to have access to MLO Program services at nine OPL branches.

The goal of the MLO Program is to assist newcomer families in settling into their schools and community. The MLO Program offers outreach services by partnering with the education sector, settlement agencies and a variety of other community service organizations.

The MLO at your OPL branch will provide you with essential community information, settlement services and referrals to a variety of services that you may need. The MLO will link families to community services, organize and present information sessions on issues such as education and employment, and offer multicultural children's programs in conjunction with OPL staff.

If you are new to Canada and would like information on learning English, finding a job, housing, education, health care, or issues such as the law and immigration, the MLO is available for consultation at the following OPL branches: Alta Vista, Beaverbrook, Centennial, Elmvale Acres, Nepean Centrepointe, North Gloucester, Rosemount, St-Laurent and South Central.

Please check the branch listing for information on specific programs.

Programme pour agents de liaison multiculturelle (ALM) à la BPO

Cet été, un partenariat formé entre la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa (BPO) et l'Organisation communautaire pour les services aux immigrants d'Ottawa (OCISO) permettra aux nouveaux immigrants d'avoir accès aux services offerts dans le cadre du programme ALM dans neuf succursales de la BPO.

Le programme ALM vise à aider les familles des nouveaux arrivants à s'adapter à leur école et communauté. Le programme offre des services de proximité grâce à des partenariats avec le secteur de l'éducation, les organismes d'accueil et diverses autres organisations de services communautaires.

Le programme ALM de votre succursale de la BPO vous fournira de l'information essentielle sur la communauté, les services d'accueil et de l'aiguillage vers une variété de services susceptibles de vous être utiles. Les programmes ALM vont relier les familles aux services communautaires, organiser et présenter des séances d'information sur des questions comme l'éducation et l'emploi, en plus d'offrir des programmes multiculturels pour enfants, de concert avec le personnel de la BPO.

Si vous êtes nouvellement arrivés au Canada et aimeriez vous renseigner sur l'apprentissage de l'anglais, la recherche d'emploi, le logement, l'éducation, les soins de santé ou des questions relatives à la loi et à l'immigration, vous pouvez consulter le programme ALM dans les succursales Alta Vista, Beaverbrook, Centennial, Elmvale Acres, Nepean Centrepointe, Gloucester Nord, Rosemount, St-Laurent et Centre-Sud de la Bibliothèque publique d'Ottawa.

Veuillez consulter la liste des activités de votre succursale pour de l'information sur des programmes précis.

June is Seniors' Month in Ontario Active Living: Healthy Living is this year's theme

The library has many resources to help seniors enjoy active and healthy living including books and videos on health, nutrition, exercise and many other topics.

Your local branch is a great place to visit and for those less physically mobile, our Homebound Services can provide delivery of library materials on a monthly basis. Please call 613-580-2944 for details.

The library offers other special services for seniors including activities, clubs and computer courses. Contact the Main Library at 613-580-2940 for registration.

Also available are computers in some library branches with ZoomText that allows users to enlarge the text. The library also has extensive collections of large-print books and books on cassette, CDs and DAISY (Digital Accessible Information System) Readers.

Juin est le Mois des personnes âgées en Ontario

Thème pour 2006 - Vie active - Vie saine

La Bibliothèque met de nombreuses ressources à la disposition des personnes âgées pour les aider à mener une vie active et saine, y compris des livres et vidéos sur la santé, la nutrition, l'exercice et divers autres sujets.

Votre succursale est un endroit formidable à visiter. En outre, les personnes aux prises avec des difficultés physiques peuvent se prévaloir du Service à domicile pour recevoir du matériel de bibliothèque tous les mois. Veuillez composer le 613-580-2944 pour plus de détails.

La Bibliothèque offre d'autres services spéciaux aux personnes âgées, y compris des activités, des clubs et des ateliers informatiques. Communiquez avec la Bibliothèque centrale au 613-580-2940 pour vous inscrire.

Certaines succursales mettent à la disposition de leurs usagers des ordinateurs dotés du ZoomText pour agrandir le texte. La Bibliothèque possède aussi des collections exhaustives de livres à gros caractères, de livres-cassettes, de CD et de lecteurs DAISY (Digital Accessible Information System).

Registration Tips

- If you have questions about a particular program, please speak with the children's department staff. They are happy to answer your questions.
- Registration for children's programs begins Wednesday, June 21.
- You can register in person at the library branch or by phone.
- If registering by phone, you must speak to a library staff member and they will complete the registration process over the phone. Messages left on library branch answering machines are not considered registration. Often by the time the answering machine is checked, many of the programs are full.
- Programs not requiring registration are open. Bring your child to the appropriate branch at the stated date and time. For questions contact the children's department staff.
- There is no charge for library programs unless otherwise stated.

Conseils pratiques pour l'inscription

- Si vous avez des questions concernant un programme particulier, veuillez consulter le personnel des Services aux enfants qui se fera un plaisir de vous répondre.
- L'inscription aux programmes pour enfants commence le mercredi 21 juin.
- Vous pouvez vous inscrire en personne à la succursale ou par téléphone.
- Pour une inscription par téléphone, vous devez parler à un membre du personnel de la Bibliothèque qui parachèvera le processus d'inscription avec vous. Les messages laissés sur les répondeurs ne peuvent tenir lieu d'inscription. Beaucoup de programmes sont déjà contingentés au moment où on écoute les messages.
- Les programmes ne requérant pas d'inscription sont ouverts. Amenez votre enfant à la succursale appropriée à l'heure et à la date indiquées. Pour toute question, communiquez avec le personnel des Services aux enfants.
- Les programmes de la Bibliothèque sont gratuits à moins d'indication contraire.

TD Summer Reading Club

Join us on our Quest for Heroes

You can join the TD Summer Reading Club at any of the 33 branches or the bookmobile! Last year, we read over 49,000 books. Check out our heroic programming – there's something for heroes of all ages – no capes required!

We have partnered this program with the Parks and Recreation department of the City of Ottawa to bring the TD Summer Reading Club to kids enrolled in summer programs at City of Ottawa facilities.

Club de lecture d'été TD

Héros recherchés
Aide-nous à en trouver!

Tu peux adhérer au Club de lecture TD à l'une de nos 33 succursales et au bibliobus! Plus de 49 000 livres ont été lus l'année dernière. Vérifie notre programmation héroïque – il y a quelque chose pour les héros de tous les âges – aucune cape requise!

Nous avons créé ce programme en partenariat avec le Service des parcs et loisirs de la Ville d'Ottawa afin de faire connaître le Club de lecture d'été TD aux enfants inscrits aux programmes offerts durant l'été dans les installations de la Ville d'Ottawa.
